AUSTRALIAN SHOW RABBIT COUNCIL INC.
WOULD LIKE TO WELCOME THEIR
2017 SYDNEY ROYAL RABBIT SHOW JUDGE
MS. REBECCA WALLBANK (NSW)

Rebecca is listed as a senior judge with Australian Show Rabbit Council Inc. and looks forward to the honour of officiating at the Sydney Royal Show, thanking the Royal Agricultural Society of NSW and ASRC for the opportunity. Rebecca is an Honorary Life Member of Rabbit Exhibitors and Breeder's Society Inc. and Australian Show Rabbit Council. Rebecca is also a current Breed Panel Committee member and a supervising judge for our up and coming rabbit judges.

Rebecca was first introduced to the rabbit "fancy" world in 2000 with the purchase of her first show quality Miniature Lop, and so began her journey.

From Rebecca's very first show in March 2000 she was hooked. It wasn't long before Rebecca had added Dwarf lops and Netherland Dwarf to the mix.

Rebecca finished her judges training in June 2007. She was lucky enough to be trained under the watchful eye of the late Mrs Vija Hone (Narview), Mr Greg Irwin and Ms Debbie Sletten.

Rebecca has had the absolute honour and privilege of judging some outstanding stock not just here in Australia, but also in both the North and South islands of New Zealand.

Over the years Rebecca has bred and exhibited Miniature Lop, Dwarf Lop, Dutch, Tri Dutch, Harlequin, Polish, Netherland Dwarf and Satin under the well know "Powder Puff" prefix.

In more recent times, Rebecca concentrated on Netherland Dwarf and Satin where she had tremendous success on the show table with both breeds.

The highlight for Rebecca was winning Best In Show at the 2009 Sydney Royal with a black fox Netherland Dwarf named "Powder Puff Xander". "Xander" went on to become one of the most successful Netherland's in the country amassing 24 Best In Show, 3 Reserve Best In Show and 2 Best In Specialty Show wins to his credit.

Rebecca looks forward to returning to judge the 2017 Sydney Royal Rabbit Show and hopes to see some outstanding exhibits.
